 Each of the individual memberships included in Sustaining Memberships must be assigned to a specific individual. If assigned to a company employee and that employee leaves, please contact WiD to reassign the individual membership. If assigned individuals are not currently WiD members we will contact them to complete their application process.*

If you are unable to become a sustaining member this year, we invite you to join WiD through an Individual Membership at $35 which entitles you to advance notice of programs, invitations to member only activities, and discounts on events and programming.

Your Sustaining Membership or Individual Membership can be completed with a credit card payment online on our website www.widdenvr.org or by completing the attached form with credit card information or by check payable to Women in Design, Inc.

Event Sponsorship

WiD program events include public discussion groups, forums, panels, lectures and workshops geared towards professional development and education of women in the design field. WiD hosts two to three major events per year showcasing multi-disciplinary speakers from the local community as well as national and international guest speakers. At each event, we offer many options for you to gain visibility & recognition for your support.

Sponsorship opportunities available from $200 to $2,500 for individual events
